APPLICATION TO USE THE AMPHITHEATRE at Ron Basford Park, Granville Island

The Amphitheatre at Ron Basford Park is a public area overlooking the water off Cartwright St between Performance Works and The Granville Island Hotel. Use of the Amphitheatre is free if the party is renting Performance Works for their event. If not, the applicant is charged an administration fee of $100 plus applicable taxes to book the Amphitheatre.

POLICIES FOR USE:

- priority for booking this space is given to CMHC-Granville Island Public Affairs and Programming for their sponsored special events and programs. Other bookings are taken as follows: No more than one year in advance for those booking Performance Works AND the Amphitheatre; no more than six months in advance for Amphitheatre only bookings.
- this area is a public space, and as such, users must allow the public to pass by unimpeded
- use of the Amphitheatre will be for special events or intermittent use only. No group/person can book the space on a regular or continuing basis
- the Granville Island Cultural Society has the right to refuse any booking based on the possible interference with a concurrent booking inside Performance Works or if they deem the proposed activity to not be in keeping with public events or programming on Granville Island
- the space cannot be used for commercial purposes such as outdoor markets or fundraisers where the public is charged admission
- any tents, structures or decorations must first be approved by the Granville Island Cultural Society
- no amplification of any kind will be permitted at the Amphitheatre
- all decoration and garbage must be removed after the ceremony and placed in the green dumpster on the west side of the Performance Works Facility
- no chairs are to be set up on the grass
- applicant will submit an application form, which if approved by GICS, will be signed and returned
- GICS reserves the right to revise these guidelines at any time
