The Granville Island Cultural Society (GICS) is a non-profit society formed in 2001. GICS provides management of two of Granville Island’s premier performance venues: the 224 seat Waterfront Theatre and the flexible seating space, Performance Works. GICS also manages the Granville Island Buskers Program. GICS advances, supports and nurtures the arts on Granville Island and works to ensure the health, vibrancy and diversity of Granville Island as a cultural oasis.
